

THE PRESS.
SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 18.
CITY AND VICINITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS TO-DAY.

ENTERTAINMENTS.
Oyster supper—Chester St. Church.
New Portland Theatre—J. F. Webster.
SPECIAL NOTICES.
Lace department—Eastman Bros. & Bancroft.
NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
A price list—Merry.
Merchants National Bank—Report.
To let—A. A. Mitchell.
Cumberland National Bank—Report.
Farmer wanted.
Barn specialties—Miller & Little.
Partnership notice.
Day light at night.

Works of Art.
The balance of the grand collection of oil and water color paintings at the sale room of F. O. Bailey & Co., 18 Exchange street, will be sold this morning at 11 o'clock. Every picture will be positively sold to the highest bidder. The last chance.

Extracted Directly from the Flower.
This is the secret of the wonderfully sweet and penetrating qualities of the perfume manufactured by J. & E. ATKINSON, of London.

From Dr. J. G. HOLLAND.
Editor Scribner's Monthly.
The great danger of sedentary men is from paralysis in its various forms, anything from a want of muscular activity. Any result which will bring entirely into play the muscles of the chest of the human body, and do this in the swiftest possible space of time, must be a great boon to the human race. Such an invention is Mann's Reactionary Lifter. Health Lift rooms 201 Middle street.

23 Dor. New Spring style Gents' Neckwear just opened at 47 cents. Owers, Moore & Co. feb18

Becky Bitten.
Peter Kleffner, of Clinton and Bennett Streets, Buffalo, was badly bitten by a horse, and applied Thomas' Electric Oil, which immediately relieved the pain, and in four days the wound was healed. feb18

From ANDREW SHUMAN.
Editor Evening Journal, Chicago.
I was greatly troubled with dyspepsia and dull pains in the head. Since using the Health-Lift, I have had no return of either. I consider this exercise worth more than all other methods ever devised for bodily improvement. Health-Lift rooms, 201 Middle street. feb18

SCIRIO, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1870.
I am the Pastor of the Baptist Church here, and an educated physician. I am not in practice, but am my sole family physician, and advise in many chronic cases. Over a year ago I recommended your Hip Bitters to my invalid wife, who has been under medical treatment of six of Albany's best physicians several years. She has become thoroughly cured of her various complicated diseases by their use. We both recommend them to our friends, many of whom have also been cured of their various ailments by them. feb18

From G. W. CARLTON, Esq.
Publisher, New York.
I have used the Health-Lift about three months, very regularly—about seven times per week; still use it regularly and find its effects satisfactory. Health-Lift rooms, 201 Middle street. feb18

Forty Years' Experience of an Old Nurse.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and whooping cough. By giving this to the child it rests the mother. Price Twenty-five cents a bottle. feb18

Messrs. F. W. KINSMAN & Co., Gents: I have sold your Adams' Botanic Cough Balm over my counter for some time, and I must say that during an experience of twenty-six years in the retail drug business I have never sold anything for Coughs, Croup, etc., that has given such universal satisfaction as your Adams' Botanic Balm. I recommend it above all others. Yours truly, S. CHICHESTER, 350 Myrtle Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y. feb18

From C. B. NELSON, Esq., Chicago.
A few weeks' practice on the Health-Lift entirely relieved me of dyspepsia and general nervous debility. I regard this exercise as invaluable. Health-Lift rooms, 201 Middle street. feb18

SUPERIOR COURT.
BEFORE JUDGE DODNEY.
FRIDAY—William T. Kilbuck vs. G. C. Hopkins. Assumpsit upon a promissory note for $37.75. Decree in favor of plaintiff. Decision reserved. Knight for plaintiff. Hopkins, pro se. C. B. Trask vs. C. P. Latham et al. Action upon promissory note for $100.00. Plaintiff's motion for judgment was denied. The plaintiff was not present and all the evidence in this case was for the defendant. Decision for the defendant. L. M. Webb for plaintiff. Motion for costs denied. Court adjourned until next Tuesday morning.

To Republican Voters.
The importance of attention to the voting lists cannot be overestimated. Many names, omitted before the previous election by carelessness or ignorance, can be put upon the lists this week. Republicans should see to it that no votes are lost in this way.

Personal.
Mr. Edwin C. Swift was in the city yesterday. Mr. Swift's dramatic labors evidently agree with him, for he is looking remarkably well. Mr. Swift is going to Europe shortly with the "San of Posei" company.

Prof. Dodd, instructor at the Portland University, has been engaged to superintend the gymnastic work of the term at Colby University. A class is being formed, which will meet in the gymnasium on Saturdays for regular work.

Mr. Whitney of this city, formerly collector for the Portland Publishing Company, went out to Saco to visit some friends a week ago last Monday. During the evening he was taken with bleeding at the lungs, and went to the Saco House, where he has remained sick ever since. He is an Odd Fellow, and the Saco Lodge have been unceasing in their efforts to see that everything possible was done for his comfort.

Mr. Jazzie Emerson Keith, wife of William Keith, the artist, died in San Francisco on the 9th inst. Mrs. Keith was a native of Maine, and was at one time a teacher in the public schools of San Francisco. Soon after her marriage she went with her husband to Europe. Both became art students at Dusseldorf, and other art centers. Mrs. Keith became in time a proficient in still life and fruit painting.

The New York Clipper, or rather the publisher, Mr. Frank Queen, is getting up a crew for the author of "Kathleen Mavourneen," who used to live in Portland. In a letter to a Portland gentleman, Mr. Queen hopes that all his old friends here, who wish to help soothe his last days, will contribute. Mr. Queen is now seventy-four years old, but he says "there is work left in the old man yet."

St. Patrick's Day.
The festival of St. Patrick was quite universally celebrated here, as elsewhere, yesterday. Masses were celebrated in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, at 6, 7 and 9.30 a. m., the sermon appropriate to the occasion being preached by Rev. Thomas P. Delaney. At St. Dominic's masses were celebrated at 6 and 7.30 a. m., and Rev. Henry J. McGill delivered a fitting discourse on the life and labors of St. Patrick. In the evening, at 7.30 o'clock, a grand concert was given in City Hall, by the children of Kavanagh and St. Dominic's schools, together with the pupils of St. Elizabeth's Academy. Rev. E. H. O'Callaghan, formerly of this city, delivered the usual lecture at the close of the first part of the musical exercises.

Grand Army Matters.
Knowles Post No. 32, was organized at Corvallis, on Friday evening, March 10th, by Roscoe G. Rollins, Chief Muster Officer, with a membership of seventeen. Last evening a new Post was organized at Bucksport, with a membership of about thirty-five. On Monday evening, March 26th, Geo. H. Abbott, Com. of Post 2 of Portland, will organize a new Post at Norway, Me. It is expected that quite a number of new Posts will be organized in this department, in addition to those mentioned above.

Attention Republicans.

The Aldermen will be in session four days this week to revise the voting lists, commencing on Wednesday, the 15th. It is hoped that every Republican will see that his name is on the list correctly.

PRER ORDER REPUBLICAN CITY COMMITTEE.

Brief Jouitings.
Fine day yesterday. Mercury 21° at sunrise 37° at noon, 36° at sunset, wind north-east. Wm. H. Looney, Esq., lectured on the Land League question at Brunswick, last evening. Remember the usual ladies temperance meeting at 7.30. All are invited.

D. W. Clarke & Co. are cutting some very fine ice at Sebago lake, clear and thick. They have already filled nine houses.

Capit. Frank Davis is to remove from St. George to this city, where he will go into the fishing business the coming season.

The original work by Thaxter the artist, or rather some of them, have arrived from Europe, and are at the Custom House.

There will be a young ladies' complimentary party at the Keller skating rink this afternoon. The young ladies will be admitted free.

The eighth annual reunion of the class of '74 P. H. S., will be held at Roswell Hall next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. S. F. Pearson has been presented with a beautiful silver chalice, with an elegant reflecting chain and foot rest. George F. Holmes lectured before the Law Students' Club last evening on the law of written contracts.

The Littlefield men hold a rally at Lincoln Hall this evening, at 8 o'clock. Each church, with an elegant reflecting chain and foot rest. George F. Holmes lectured before the Law Students' Club last evening on the law of written contracts.

There will be a literary and musical entertainment at Chestnut street vestry Monday evening, and an oyster supper Tuesday. Mrs. Minnie Gordon Gough will read the poem, "The Dying School." Will begin Monday, April 3d. Mr. F. E. C. Robbins and Miss Annie A. Gray will be retained as teachers in the High school.

Rev. C. A. Hayden will address the people at City Hall on Temperance Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Seats free; all are invited. Music by quartette.

The Young Ladies' Shakespeare Club of the class of '81, P. H. S., had a reception and oyster supper at Miss Jett's Thursday evening. There was music, toast, reading, and it proved an enjoyable occasion.

The public will remember that the continuation of reserved seats to the Cadet's hall will begin at 11 P. M. Perkins confectionery store, 180 Congress street, at 9 a. m. today. Each purchaser will be limited to twelve seats.

An old man, who keeps a shop in this city, became angry with his wife and made complaint to the police that she sold liquor. The wife was taken to the station and the old man repented, and at last accounts was trying to secure bondsmen to effect her deliverance.

At the meeting of the Irish Land League, next Monday evening, a delegate to the Washington convention will be chosen and resolutions in regard to the confinement of American citizens in British dungeons will be adopted and a copy sent to Congressmen Reed.

The regular meeting of the Fish and Game Protective Association was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. J. J. Perkins, 180 Congress street, Boston. With the exception of voting to invite Captain Fred G. Barker of Maine to deliver an address at the next meeting no business of importance was transacted.

East Portland Improvement Society.
On Thursday evening the regular meeting of the above society held at Island Hall, Peaks Island, was well attended and the exercises were unusually varied and interesting. Several musical numbers were given by the ever popular quartette. The audience of Portland kindly favored the society with songs, recitations, harmonica playing, etc., thus exhibiting his patriotic abilities with marked success. Miss George Latham, a contralto destined to become a worthy successor of Miss Cary, happened to be spending a few days at her old home, and was prevailed upon to declaim her friends and fellow companions with a couple of selections most charmingly rendered. Miss Latham has a rich voice of marvelous compass and volume, and is thought very highly of in Boston where she is pursuing her studies. She has received numerous very flattering offers from operatic and concert managers, and rumor has it that she has accepted one from Mapleson and will make her debut in his company. It is quite safe to predict a brilliant future for our fair Island girl.

The business of the evening was in a measure secondary to the literary part. There were the usual reports from committees and a valuable paper by the Rev. T. A. Adams on social, moral and religious improvement. The Corresponding Secretary, Mr. J. B. Jones, was instructed to secure tenders for the furnishing of 300 additional shade and ornamental trees, and petitions were presented and circulated for signatures, praying the city government to construct a sidewalk along Island Avenue and to grade Sterling street.

Attention was called to the fact that there were present representatives from no less than three families that had moved into the place since the institution of the society in January last, and it was accepted as an omen of success. More are on the road, the advance guard has arrived and looked the field over, and now that the main body is approaching we may expect that East Portland will shortly attain to municipal proportions.

The City of Portland.
The steamer City of Portland of the International line has had a thorough overhauling. A new piston and new valves have been put in the engine and boilers newly braced and fastened and put in thorough condition, under the supervision of the experienced and popular engineer Mr. James H. Merrill. It is expected that she will make better time than ever this season. Captain John Thompson, the efficient chief mate of the line, to whom the credit is due for the handsome appearance which the City of Portland makes this spring in her company and this trip, after which Captain Larom will have command.

Funeral of Rev. Dr. Champlin.
The funeral of Rev. J. T. Champlin, D. D., will take place at Free street church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Messrs. Anderson, McWhinnie and Dalton will take part in the services. Rev. Dr. Robinson, late president of Colby University, will be present, if his health will permit. Gen. Chamberlain, president of Bowdoin College, will also be present. Several members of the faculty of Colby University will be in attendance. The resident alumni of the college will also be present, and the church at a quarter before two o'clock, and visiting alumni are requested to join them there.

A Cruel Boy.
Mr. J. H. Fletcher, of the firm of J. H. Fletcher & Co., has some very fine pigeons, which he keeps in his barn. Yesterday one of them went into the barn chamber, where one of the pigeons has a young brood, and there found the mother pigeon striving to take care of its young, while the blood was streaming from one leg that had been cut by the cruel boy. The boy was last year Mr. Fletcher had a pigeon treated in the same way, and if he catches the young barbarian it will be a sad day for that youth.

Worth Reading.
The following extract from a letter from Octave Thane to the Rev. J. H. Merrill, of Davenport, Iowa, the 11th inst., is of special interest just now:
"The prohibition party seem to act in Portland much as they do in New Hampshire, virtually ally with the liquor party in order to crush any honorable man who feels that he cannot support their policy. Such conduct and such attitude on the matter make real temperance reform most difficult and perplexing."

Portland Turnverein.
At the annual meeting of the Portland Turnverein held in evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Speaker—Arthur B. Morrill.
Leader—E. L. Smith.
Secretary—Geo. H. Harrison.
Director of Entertainment—Charles D. Pillsbury.
Treasurer—J. C. Dennis.
Armorer—J. C. Dodd.

Arrival of the Hibernian.
The steamship Hibernian, Capt. Wiley, arrived at this port yesterday from Liverpool by 7th and Halifax 13th inst, with several cabin and 125 steerage passengers and cargo. The passengers and cargo are destined, for the most part, for the west.

Fire at Sebago Lake.
The house of Stuart Hopper near Sebago Lake station destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Part of the furniture was saved. Loss about $200. A defective chimney is supposed to have caused the cause.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

WHEELLOCK'S BENEFIT.
There was a large, brilliant and fashionable audience in attendance at Portland Theatre last night, on the occasion of Mr. Wheellock's benefit. The various striking situations in the play were received with much enthusiasm, and the beneficiary received many flattering proofs of the estimation in which he is held by our theatre-going public. Miss Joyce, Messrs. Barrowes, Ince, and others of the company, also strove to please, and with success.

The evening's entertainment closed with the well known farce of the "Rough Diamond," Frank Curtis appearing for the first time on the stage as Cousin Joe. His appearance on the stage was a signal for excessive applause, and he delighted all by his assumptions of the character. He was well assisted by Miss Joyce, as Margery.

Repeated calls were made for Mr. Wheellock, but he did not respond till the close of the fourth act, when the audience fairly demanded the favorite actor to respond, and the curtain was raised three times.

The selections by Mr. Grimmer's orchestra gave great pleasure. The performances of today will afford the last chance to see Mr. Wheellock. The matinee will begin at 2.30 o'clock.

KERRY GOW.
Mr. Joseph Murphy, supported by Miss Julia Stewart, and a good company, will appear at Portland Theatre, next Monday night, in the play of "Kerry Gow." The play was written by "Kerry Gow," as presented by Joseph Murphy's combination, is one of the brightest, prettiest, and most interesting of the Irish plays of the present day. The action is excellent, the dialogue as bright and crisp as a new bell note, and the situations just varied enough to keep the audience constantly interested. It is not only purely a pure Irish drama, but it is a pure Irish drama. Mr. Murphy's reputation here was made several seasons ago, when he sang the Irish songs, and his acquaintance. His support throughout last night was good. There was a good advance sale yesterday.

NOTES.
"Pianoforte" will prove the next great musical event in Portland. The hall fare on the railroads will bring hosts of people here from the interior towns, and the Ideal Opera case is an exceptional one.

The readings and concert under the auspices of Harmony Lodge, at Odd Fellows Hall, last night, will be largely attended. We published the programme yesterday.

Mr. Gas Levich has been engaged for the forthcoming production of the White Slave. J. M. Hill has engaged Mr. George Hiddle as a star for three years, commencing September. He is to play Roy Blas, Claude Melnotte, and other romantic legitimate parts.

Mr. Robert Stoddard, of the production at Daly's Theatre. It is a light opera of a romantic kind, adapted by Mr. Daly, and arranged by Mr. Robert Stoddard. It will be put on at about a couple of weeks. Mr. Gilbert, Harry Macdonough, May Fiddens, and the old play, Mr. William, Isabel Evenson and Agnes Perling appear in it. Mankind will not be done this season.

Mr. Doyley Carlo sailed for Europe last Saturday. Mr. Charles Harris will remain here till the end of the season. April 30, at 12, it will be necessary to put on something else before long.

McDonald, in the Clipper, while he thinks "Lieut. Richard Wardour" excellently put on the stage, and Mr. W. M. Wheelock still considers his future success questionable. He thinks there is too little of the "Wardour" in the Clipper.

Alfred de Musset's pretty comedy-drama of "Barberine" was recently produced at the Comedie Francaise in Paris, in most splendid style, with scenic effects as the classic theatre has rarely attempted elsewhere. The production served as the occasion for the debut of an exceedingly beautiful Russian girl named Evgenie, who, in her first performance, attracted much attention.

The Bolshoi for the past few months. The critics think that her success will hinder her from playing very often at present, but are evidently inclined to believe that she has a grand future before her.

Miss Cary will be assisted at her concert by the Temple Quartette of Boston, Cecilia Club, and the Vocal Club of this city. Miss Long and Mr. Murray.

About the New Place.
Senior Ernesto Ponce, so long and so favorably known in connection with the tobacco trade in this city, has opened a place for the manufacture and sale of cigars at No. 37 Water street. Last evening he invited the reporters of the daily papers to take a look over the rooms, and after a pleasant little supper with the Senior at the United States Hotel, they made their way to Commercial street, where they became acquainted with many fine brands of cigars, and listened to much entertaining gossip about the tobacco leaf and the various ways in which it is prepared for the detection of man. Some old beliefs were exploded, and one most emphatically contradicted—that in the lavish hospitality of the Castilian.

Senior Ponce's manufactory will employ some thirty men, who will soon be at work. The factory is the largest in the State, and the skill and taste of its owner give assurance that the goods made by the factory will be of the best. In order to attract custom, the front of the shop has been fitted up as a retail store, and is to have an electric light, so customers can see what they are smoking. Billiard and pool tables have been put in. His visitors dined a game at pool last night, the newspaper team being matched against one made up of the best players in the city. Had the chalk given out the newspaper fellows might have come out winners. As it was, too many "scatches" were recorded. But if the Senior's customers enjoy themselves as well as his visitors did, 37 Commercial street will be one of the most frequented places in town.

K. O. P.
About fifty members of the Knights of Pythias of this city with representatives from Bath and Lewiston visited Marshwood Lodge, No. 1, at Biddeford last evening. Although the members of that lodge were almost taken by surprise they entertained their visitors handsomely. The party returned home at 12 o'clock on a special train.

Lectures.
The first of a series of illustrated lectures will be given in the Chace street Free Baptist church Sunday evening, by Rev. J. M. Lorden. Subject: "Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress."

Steers and Crows.
PORTLAND, March 17.
The Argus of yesterday quotes from the Boston Traveller that "Solon Chase will engage in the business of publishing a newspaper in the city of Portland, to be called the 'Living Argus' and will be the editor of the Maine Greenbackers," and says that the Traveller is in error, and adds that "steers will be engaged this summer in pulling Republican candidates into office," &c. Now the Argus ever since I can remember has been called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the country or any other, and yet be the best. Do you remember, Mr. Argus, how Hiram Greely's small paper, called the "Living Argus" and it is true to its record, I say, as a needle to the pole, and is judged accordingly by all fair-minded people. Perhaps it would be in order for this remarkable sheet to tell the people why it is trying to "pull a Republican" into the office of Mayor in this city. I suppose it would use its former record with remarkable accuracy. This same Argus can eat the most humiliating dish of crow of any paper ever published in the

et co, th, ng be OO
m 11 co,
th all th, rt,
co,
th er er
th and stp-GO and and s a ing and ed
er, ices ed s
=

by es, the very ellic ery e's by led ave ity sis

),,

ty

||

o a
-
-
-
-

Ten than as an-re-an-rear each at the the rest 73
 44
 29 00 m. r. w sses of s-use-son, and the the and the few the with Fe-fo-gur
 Un ort
 r. s G.
 RK
 RK
 RK 12. to to to by Y.
 St.,